

Alumni Panel

Investment Management

Monday, November 24, 2025

5:00-7:00 p.m.

Public Policy Building 105 (Lecture Hall)

How do you get on the path to a career in investment management? What do investment analysts actually do? How does financial market volatility and uncertainty affect investors and investment analysts? Answers to these and other questions will be provided at a panel discussion with distinguished UMBC alumni. Professor Douglas Lamdin, Economics, will moderate the discussion. Q&A and informal networking will follow the discussion.

Ashley Allen, CFA, CFP

2010 BA Economics, UMBC
2019 MBA, Columbia Business School

Executive Director, Chase Center for Economic Intelligence
J.P. Morgan Chase

Hailey Lynch, CFA

2016 BS Mathematics (Statistics & Economics minors), UMBC

Sr Quant Investment Analyst, Multi-Asset
T. Rowe Price

W. Zachary Rayfield, Ph.D., CFA

2008 BS Mathematics; Meyerhoff Scholar, M16, UMBC
2010 MS, 2014 PhD, Operations Research, Cornell University

Head of Global Goals-Based Investing Solutions Vanguard

UMBC students/faculty/staff are asked to RSVP your attendance via the myUMBC event.

Alumni are asked to RSVP via email to Doug or Cheryll.

Doors open at 4:45 p.m. Panel begins at 5:00 p.m. Q&A begins at 6:30 p.m.

Food and drink provided during networking.

Questions? Contact Lamdin@umbc.edu or Cheryll@umbc.edu